he's here
welcome back
i cent stey for t leng they might start wandering where i am but i do heve lots to report
.....
hes not a troll

arthur dont let doug bring anyone in here. hes a parinoid dumbass what!? hes not a troll but doug acted pretty sure let him go. ill explain everything to him a you w wrong would of he enough so who are you people? we are a secret group thats fighting the trolls. even the trolls dont know of us. we stay in the shadows we make sure we are never seen and we are called the defenders but even the sneakest team cant make someones life disapear with out someone knowing someones missing. and thats how it started the trolls thought that shadow was the who started all there trouble's so i warned him but he didn't listen and started a all out battle with the trolls. but before that we would take down there camps with out no problem this group years b. it started if you want to know how you must speak with the best he can my sorry to share but this group is filled with some of the most cruel known people ever hey whats that number on your back? im the 7th person to join this group back to what i was saying. the only reason they let me join was because i wasn't known they dont know my fate because i never been trolled so i was the perfect fit
and i join because i was always friends with people who got trolled so i took there offer and thats how i joined you would have to ask anything else to know there stories im only gonna ask you this once. do you want to join us? yea im done with these trolls its about time they have been taken down for good the rest of the members are in there 7

here's all the members becides our bosses batman

cheeto man

dexter

hello kitty

kermit the frog

ronald mcdonald

spyro

vivian

woodstock

what happen to porkchop?

we dont like talking about it but ill tell you. doug's dog was gang banged to death by the trio

go inside

so your the two bosses he made us bosses of everyone else because we helped him start this group he may of came up with the idea but we made it start frogger yes we are leap frog tails listen to them im gonna report what ive learned to the main boss this group has been alive longer then you would think all of us here have one goal and thats to end the trolls for good but we cant just attack them head to head because we are out numbered i was trolled and then i tried to fight back and i was beaten up you are just like the rest of us we all have our reason's to hate the trolls for there actions the only problem thats in our way from destroying the trolls for good is there boss so we must fight in the shadows we must take them down slowly a up front conflict with them is not a option tails you seem to be true and filled with heart the boss is waiting in the other room go ahead he will tell you all you need to know alright

your the boss
many year's back when i was younger i had a vision of this moment' i believe you might be the key to defeating the trolls wakka wakka there's lots we must discuss. wakka are you sure im the key. i can't be? the battle between humans and trolls go back to the The Medieval Em for you to understand the reason I started this group. I must tell you my story wakka way back wakka wakka where should i begin? ok i know where wakka wakka.. it started when the trolls took over the city of alferd.. where they only kicked out who didn't want to follow the troll king the ones that left started a small village witch is where i lived when i was a child but i was diffferant from everyone else i was the only none human , i dont know where i came from but it dosn tsatter they treated me like i was there own the leader was me and my friends master he taught us how to defend our self's sigh

you guys are getting alot better I say they will end up stronger then you in no time hahahahah hey I dont want to turn them into cocky sons of bitches hey dad
I know sillous what do you have in mind?
well
hey lets talk about this another time. with out these children round alright
hey I want to help the guys take the city back no your staying here and thats that!! that night is when i had my first vision

AHHHHHHH!!!!

sigh..... it was just a dream at first i thought it was a dream but after that vision something didn't feel right. I knew something bad was gonna happen pacman it was just a nightmare there's nothing to worry about but william it felt so real. this was more then just a dream even so its not like we can do anything about it i guess your right

son time to go

maybe he's right and it was nothing see you later!!

but i couldn't pass the feeling something bad would come from them trying to take the city back so i told my master and i have a feeling if you leave something bad is gonna happen i underst and your concern and even if you are right. we must go our people we are running out of resources as it is. and this is my fault this started in the first place. our people started this because we was sent then left to the wild because he was different with was a mistake I shouldn't of made so because you failed to understand and trust the truth right. is why your trying to not treat me like a rat cat!

Brian we all have to deal with our wrong choices in life. and I will make up for mine by getting the city back so later that day they left to take the city back from the troll's. what i have feared was only a matter of time from happening there gone everyte hing is gonna be ok i was hoping i was wrong trying to not think about it. so i went and got some sleep to try to forget about though's dreams the next thing i remember is waking up to a fire WAKE UP!!! wake the fuck up we got to get out of here the house is onfire what happen?

the trolls are sneaking now lets hurry RUN!!!
oh my god!!!
no no this cant be happening we got to hurry they might still be here
.....
ive found Survivors
....
pacman run!!!

kril them
thoughs eyes
run!!!!!
and i kild damnit boss is gonna kill me if he finds out i let him get away fuck it. its not like we will ever see him again sir i killed him after that day i couldn't stop myself from saying wakka everytime i talked i looked every where i could and nothing then i realized that the dragonballs was a myth. they wasn't real. they didn't exist so i stoped looking for them but than i realized i couldn't beat him alone and the night before i started the group i had the vision with you in it tails
